Presley Thornton, Esq. and are the same on

The uplands consist of about 1000 acres, and the whole is well calculated for the production

every assistance. Their hatred of the archduke John was equalled by their joy at our triumph. Certain papers showed that the great love to the emperor, and would not offices under the Austrian government. The regiments of Italy who distinguished themselves in Poland, covered themselves in glory. The charming country is progressing to the most happy day. All the accounts from the Austrians are enormous; the flower of the army is there. The wits of Vienna say that Danube saved the Austrian army. Volaberg, Carinthia, Salzburg, Upper Austria, are tranquilized. Trieste was taken possession of. The colonial produce was confiscated. A Russian squadron was a circumstance agreeable to the emperor. The army of Dalmatia is engaged Schill, who truly give him the name of general in the service of the emperor. The king of England Ferdinand, has been driven to the Elbe. The king of Westphalia 15 thousand native troops. A two divisions of a corps of 3000 cavalry, now disposable of Swabia.

FIFTEENTH BULLETIN.

EAERSDORF, June 1, 1809. The army of Dalmatia has gained the greatest success. It has defeated every thing that opposed it at Mont-Kittia, Gradchatz, Liecn and Otachatz. The commander in chief Sloisewich was taken. The duke of Ragusa arrived on the 28th [May] at Fiume and formed a junction with the grand army of which the army of Dalmatia was the right extreme. We will make known the relation of the duke Ragusa on these events. On the 28th an English squadron of four ships of the line, two frigates and a brig appeared before Trieste, with the intention of taking the Russian squadron. The general count Caffarelli had just arrived there. As the city had no cannon, the Russians landed 24 thirty sixes and 16 twenty fours, and fixed them in battery and immediately clapped springs on their cables. Every thing was prepared to receive the enemy, who having missed his aim retired. One thousand Austrians who had passed from the right bank of the Danube were defeated by the Wirtemberg corps, who made 60 prisoners.

SIXTEENTH BULLETIN.

EAERSDORF, June 4. The enemy had thrown a division of 9000 men on the right bank of the Danube, opposite Presburg, which was entrenched in the village of Engersau. The duke of Auerstadt ordered the riflemen [tirailleurs] of Hesse Darmstadt, supported by the 12th of the line (infantry) to attack it yesterday. The village was soon carried. A major, 8 officers of the regiment of Beaulieu (among them the grandson of that field marshal) and 400 men were taken. The rest of the regiment were killed, wounded or driven into the water. The remainder of the division secured themselves in an island till they could repass the river. The riflemen of Hesse Darmstadt fought well. The viceroy's head-quarters are this day at Odenburg.

The most valuable effects of the court, have been removed from Bude to Peterawadin, with the empress is retired. The duke of Ragusa is arrived at Laybach. Gen. Macdonald is master of Gratz. He is surrounding the citadel, which makes a show of resistance.

At the battle of Essling the brigadier Potters, being wounded was thrown from his horse; and major general Durosnel, one of the emperor's aids, while carrying orders to a division of cuirassiers who were charging, was also thrown. We have the satisfaction of learning that these two generals and 150 men that were supposed lost, are only wounded, and were found in the field, when the emperor gave orders to separate between Essling and Grosswarth, on hearing that the bridges of the Danube had given way. The Danube is lowering; though from the continuation of the heats, a rise is feared.

From the army of the grand duchy of Warsaw. After the capture of the bridge of Gora, the enemy having abandoned the right bank of the Vistula, the army under the command of prince Poniatowski was divided into two columns: the first ascending the Vis-

Beaumonts corps of observation. The column was cut off at Neumarck, and the whole body officers and soldiers laid down their arms.

Vienna is quiet; bread and wine are abundant, but meat, which this capital gets from the interior of Hungary, begins to grow scarce. Contrary to all reasons of policy and humanity, the enemy do every thing to starve their countrymen, and this city, which contains their wives and children. This conduct is very different from that of our Henry IV, who himself supplied an enemy's city he was besieging.

The duke of Montebello, (Lasnes) died yesterday at 5 o'clock in the morning. Some time before the emperor conversed an hour with him. His majesty sent, by gen. Rapp his aide-de-camp, for Dr. Franc, one of the most celebrated physicians in Europe. His wounds were in good condition; but abated fever had made the most injurious progress in a few hours. All the aid of the art was unavailing. His majesty ordered the body of the duke of Montebello to be embalmed, and carried to France, to receive the honors due to his high rank and eminent services. Thus has departed one of the most distinguished soldiers that France has had. In the numerous battles he had been in, he had received 13 wounds. The emperor has shown great sensibility on this loss, which will be felt by all Frenchmen.

From the army of the grand duchy of Warsaw. After the capture of the bridge of Gora, the enemy having abandoned the right bank of the Vistula, the army under the command of prince Poniatowski was divided into two columns: the first ascending the Vistula to Pulaw, the other marching to Kock, on the 14th Poniatowski entered Lublin, and the next day marched towards Sandomia. Part of the army entered Pizersworski and cut off the communication between Lemberg and Cracow.

Gen. Rozniceck, with 400 cavalry took 710 prisoners, comprising a major, and 9 other officers; also sundry arms, shoes and clothing.

Poniatowski succeeded in an attack on Sandomir which was strongly fortified. The enemy lost 1000 men killed, 1200 prisoners, 20 cannon and considerable stores. Poniatowski's cavalry extending to Leopold is pushing on to Cracow. They have set free 3000 men who had been enlisted by force.

The Galicians daily testify the hatred they bear the Austrians. Gen. Dombrowski has every where repulsed the enemy on the lower Vistula.

On the 14th, Thorn was attacked. The tete-de-pont was not in a state of defence. The garrison burnt that part of the bridge which communicated with it and took position on the island. This movement was made after an affair very destructive to the enemy, who not being able to pass the river, gave up the enterprise when he saw the good appearance of the city.

On the 15th the enemy under Plock attempted the passage of the Vistula, but were repulsed and obliged to burn their boats.

From the 19th to the 23d gen. Dombrowski attacked the enemy between Bromberg and Czutochow and repulsed him with effect before Bromberg, afforded full protection to Czutochow and Thorn, and secured the communication of this latter place with Inowracław.

GOTTENBURG, May 26, six o'clock, P. M.

We have this moment received information that the Russians have positively broken the armistice, and have taken possession of the town of Tornea, and 700 men who garrisoned it.

Their demands are said to be, that the queen shall be appointed regent during the minority of her son; that Finland shall be ceded, and that the Swedish ports shall be shut against England—the whole proposition having been rejected, is the cause of the recommencement of hostilities.

May 29.

We have a report that 40,000 Russians are forcing their way into Sweden, the ice being still strong enough in the Gulf of Bothnea for the passage of heavy artillery. The official account of the Russians having entered Tornea, arrived this morning.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 5.

In consequence of the indisposition of the person who has been employed to deliver this paper in the lower parts of the town, we have been compelled to substitute another in his place. Should any of our subscribers be missed they are requested to send word to the office and the omission shall be rectified.

On Sunday last arrived in Hampton Roads, his Britannic majesty's brig Contest, lieutenant Gregorie, in 8 weeks from England, with dispatches for Mr. Erskine. There were landed from her, we understand, upwards of 1200 letters for different parts of the continent. She proceeded up the bay the next morning.

[Norfolk Ledger.]

View of the Seat of War near Vienna.

Opposite Ebersdorf the Danube is divided into three arms, separated by two islands. From the right bank to the first island it is 240 toises (fathoms) wide; this island is nearly 1000 toises in circumference. From this island to the great island where runs the principal current, the channel is 120 toises wide. The great island called Ander Lobau, is 7000 toises in circumference, and the channel by which it is divided from the main land is 70 toises wide. The first contiguous villages are Great Aspern, Esling & Ebersdorf. The passage of a river like the Danube, before an enemy who has a perfect knowledge of its localities, and who has the inhabitants of the country on his side, is one of the greatest operations of war of which it is possible to conceive.

The bridge from the right bank to the first island, and that from the first island to In-der-Lobau, were erected on the 19th May, and on the 18th Molitor's division had been carried in row-boats into the great island.

On the 20th, the emperor passed to this island and caused a bridge to be erected over to the last arm of the river, between Great-Aspern and Esling. This arm being only 70 toises wide, the bridge required only 15 pontoons, and was thrown across in three hours by col. Aubrey of the artillery.

SALEM, July 28.

We understand that one of Mr. Gray's vessels is prepared to take out Mr. Adams and his family to Russia. A son of colonel Smith's of New York (grandson to president Adams) goes as private secretary; and a son of Mr. Gray accompanies Mr. A. captain Benjamin Bickford, of Beverly, commands the ship.

A CELEBRATED ROMANCE ENTITLED

ABAELLINO,

THE BRAVO OF VENICE.

Translated from the German, by M. G. Lewis, the well known author of the Castle Spectre, Monk, Adelgitha &c. &c. Price, handsomely bound, one dollar—the English edition sold at one dollar seventy five cents.

What black Musician conjures up this fiend? What, do you tremble, are ye all afraid? Alas, I blame ye not, for ye are mortal. And mortal eyes cannot endure the devil—Avant, thou dreadful Minister of Hell.

RICHARD III.

In justice to this excellent Romance, we need only remark, that the Grand Dramatic piece, which for several seasons past drew such full houses to our theatre, is founded on the same subject, as translated by Dunlap; but the acknowledged superiority of Lewis's writings or translations in the Romance style, being so far superior to any other of our modern authors, leaves encomium unnecessary with the publishers.

NOTE. Five editions of this Romance were sold in a very short time, after publication in London—it is dedicated to the Earl of Moira, by Lewis.

With pleasure I do return my sincere thanks to the above named ladies, and many others who have favored me with their certificates and custom in the purchase of Yarwood's Patent Washing Machine. I find them still in great demand in this place, but finding a very great scarcity of plank to answer the purpose of making them here, I shall in a few days or weeks commence making them to the southward. First fill the barrel half full of your finest cloths, then fill the bottom of the Reservoir with hot suds up to the side-planks, turn the Crank backwards and forwards so as to make the cloths fall the hardest against the sides of the barrel for about twenty-five minutes, then use the same suds with a little more soap and hot water for the next finest cloths, until the suds are unfit for use, then second your cloths in the same way with boiling suds, after rubbing a little soap on the dirtiest parts of the cloths; then rinse them in the machine in warm or cold water.

FOR SALE,

The following VALUABLE PROPERTY.

A TRACT OF LAND,

Called and known by the name of Joe Marsh, lying within 12 miles of Winchester, in the county of Frederick, in the state of Virginia. On about 900 acres of this tract there are several very well improved farms tenanted for life or lives, the balance free of all incumbrance, including an excellent mill, built with stone, the whole yielding an annual rent of about 800 dollars. Most of this tract is very fertile, well watered, and a abundance of timber. It is generally rolling, but part of it is hilly and stoney, and of lime stone. It will be laid off to suit purchasers.

Another tract, called Hollis Marsh, lying in the county of Westmoreland, containing about 2800 acres, bordering on the river Potomac, adjoining the Stratford estate and the late residence of Richard Lee, esq. Chantilly. On the estate are a number of farms and tenants at will. Part of this tract is extremely fertile, and all of it as good as the lands generally are in that part of the country. The Marsh affords excellent pasture for stock, and is happily situated for fish and fowls of which that river abounds, and may be a desirable estate to any person who choose to reside in that part of the country. It will however be laid off to suit purchasers. The above lands are held by deeds of purchase duly recorded in the general court.

Another tract containing 900 acres, lying in the county of Berkeley, adjoining the residence of Rawleigh Colston, esq. of which about 660 acres is leased for the balance of the life of an aged man, the rest wanted at will. This land is situated in what is called the big bend of Potomac, and borders on it. In point of fertility it is esteemed superior to none in that part of the state, and held by deed from James Marshall, esq.

Seven other tracts containing 1000 acres each, adjoining each other in the county of Mason, within a few miles of the Ohio, between the two Kanhawa's on the waters of Sandy Creek, which runs through a considerable part of it. It adjoins the lands of general Washington, and the late Benjamin Harrison, jun. esq. A large portion of it is rich bottom and the upland of very good quality. It is held under the original patent by deeds duly recorded in the general court.

Five full & complete Shares in the Disinal Swamp Company.

Upwards of 16,000 acres of Lands, being very old military rights, lying in the states of Ohio, Kentucky and the Indiana territory, chiefly patented in my own name and ready to be shewn.

A more particular description of the foregoing property may be seen by applying to Mr. Thomas Taylor, of Richmond, who is authorized to make contracts, or to myself in Alexandria. The titles are all unquestioned, and the terms proposed are, one fourth in cash at the time of conveyance, the balance in three instalments, the last two to be of interest from the date. Any species of the public stock and of the different Banks in the United States of Insurance Companies—the Potomac Bridge and Turnpike Companies will be received in payment according to their fair value. Ground rents in the city of Richmond and town of Alexandria, or Houses and Lots, will likewise be received in payment according to such rates as may be agreed upon.
